Subject: ISIS attack on US base

Status: Developing

Event: On April 9, 2020 ISIS claimed responsibility for 5 rockets fired at the Bagram Air Base in Kabul, Afghanistan. No damages to the base have been reported and no soldiers have sustained any injuries. ANDSF forces have initiated an investigation to gather details about the attack.

Action: The ODNI recommends that we increase surveillance on ISIS, and the security systems at all bases in MENA. All bases in this region must be on high alert due to the repetitive attacks from terrorist organizations in MENA. Increased surveillance capabilities and weaponry at Bagram Air Base is recommended.

Est Cost:

Military Assistance: $1 Million
