Flash Bulletin

Komyshuvakha - 2 November 2026

10:00 EEST (UTC + 2:00)

Subject: Russian Aerial Glide Bomb Strikes Humanitarian Aid Center, kills dozens of Ukrainians and injures hundreds.

Status: Hieghtended

Event: Around 10am on November 2nd, in the village of Komyshuvakha, a Russian aerial glide bomb struck an elementary school that had been set up as a shelter to temporarily house displaced Ukrainians and distribute humanitarian aid. The strike has killed dozens and has injured hundreds of Ukrainians and continues to further impact Ukrainian water supplies. This attack comes after a full day of phony emergency alerts from Ukrainian governmental run mobile apps.

Action: It is recommended that the UN force Russia to take accountability for violating international Humanitarian Law. The ICC should pursue prosecution and steps should be taken to further protect Ukrainian civilians.

Est. Cost:

Humanitarian Aid: $500,000
