Not For Release

USNORTHCOM Station Chief - Eli Adams

Distribution:

Joint Chiefs of Staff

Executive Council

Director of National Intelligence

Position Summary

United States Northern Command seeks to preserve and defend the intelligence operations of the United States concerning the global north. NORTHCOM operations will progress with an emphasis on strategic capacity to facilitate relevant information collection, policy analysis, and implementation throughout the region. General applications of NORTHCOM largely focus on intelligence, however response capacity informs the efficacy of response. As acting station chief, I must emphasize the importance of USNORTHCOM in maintaining U.S. interests abroad. This informs a commitment to reaffirm the U.S. position within the global north as station chief.

The office of the station chief has identified the following priority issues:

1. Human and Narco trafficking
2. Cuban blockaide
3. Allied tensions with the United States
4. Foreign sponsors of terrorism
5. Maintenance of security advantages in the Atlantic/Pacific