Subject: Transport workers block highways

Type: Political

Event:

On Tuesday, November 10 major highways and roads are being blocked in protest of escalating diesel prices. Protesters are demanding relief from skyrocketing prices, that have been increased by the war in Iran. This major protest is affecting economic activity and exports. Putting Chile on hold.

Action:

It is recommended that the United States work as a diplomatic effort by reassuring protesters their right to freedom of assembly. While encouraging Chiles' government to find an appropriate resolution. To keep Chile's economy running.
